Dear Linda Collins

Thank you for your email of 03 November 2024 in relation to the A2 Bean and Ebbsfleet junctions improvement scheme and specifically regarding the most recent Road Safety Audit.

The audit has been undertaken and a designers response has been prepared. The response is currently under consultation with National Highways safety specialist. Once it has been finalised, hopefully within the month, this will be issued to yourselves.

Further investigations and actions, will to reviewed following the closing of the audit.

We're always looking to improve our customer's experiences and journeys through our roadworks, so please feel free to provide us any more feedback in the future. If we can be of further assistance regarding this project, then please do contact us at your convenience by email. You can find out more about our improvement plans on our website, where you can sign up to receive our latest newsletter.

Thank you once again for contacting us. For any other enquiries regarding National Highways, please contact the Customer Contact Centre by phone on 0300 123 5000 or alternatively via email: info@nationalhighways.co.uk.

Kind regards

Holly Woodruff
